

 KODOLANYI JANOS UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

7TH INTERNATIONAL WEEK

3-7 APRIL, 2017

FOR STUDENTS (GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS)

Owing to a positive feed-back from a great number of our partner institutions we also welcome students (groups or individuals) to the 7th International Week as a field trip or study tour that combines theoretical knowledge with practical experiences also giving an excellent opportunity to have a better understanding of Hungary.

The International Week is offered to international students in the form of a condensed elective course or field-trip /study tour under the title:

“Academy of International Lecturers – New Trends in Applied Sciences” (5 ECTS)

Purpose of the course: The seventh edition of the KJU International Week organized as a series of lectures is meant to improve the intercultural competencies of students. The seminars held by the guest lecturers of our partner universities reflect the latest achievements in science and research and aim to provide students with practical knowledge, competencies and new approaches. Furthermore, participants will also have the opportunity to experience new pedagogical methods. Due to the multidisciplinary nature of the event, students have the opportunity to opt for lectures best suited to their individual interests and/or field of study. In addition to that, the international exposure can prove a valuable asset by providing the student with perspectives for choosing a subject for their thesis as well as for its completion.

Please, note that the deadline for the submission of the registration form is 25 February 2017.

The participation at the international conference during the International Week is free of charge for students
